

Research Study

Survey Study

Antiracism in Occupational Therapy Education: Perspectives of Underrepresented Minority Stakeholders

What	This study explores the stakeholder perspectives on the educational supports and barriers to professional success of underrepresented minority practitioners and students in occupational therapy (OT).
Who	Underrepresented minority students, faculty, and practitioners who are currently enrolled or have graduated from an accredited OT/OTA program.
Why	Opportunity to share your educational experiences and make suggestions that will impact the future of OT education for OT practitioners.
Length	Research survey will be open from January 1 st through March 1 st 2022
Requirements	Anonymous online survey (20 minutes)
Contact Information	Hannah Morris, OTS Email: Hannah.Morris@rush.edu

Rush University: Department of Occupational Therapy

For mobile devices:
Scan the QR code to direct you to the survey.

For computers: Click the following link to direct you to the survey.

<https://redcap.rush.edu/redcap/surveys/?s=TF8R74NKK743WXL8>

